

Alaska Entomological Society Meeting, 8-9 Feb. 2019

Alaska Dept. Natural Resources large conference room, 3700 Airport Way, Fairbanks

Agenda

Friday, 8 February

Time	Activity/Talk Title – Presenter
7:00pm	Optional social. Derek Sikes residence, 930 Fitz court (for more details, directions, etc. contact Derek at dssikes@alaska.edu)

Saturday, 9 February

Time	Activity/Talk Title – Presenter
9:00-9:30am	Welcome, introductions, general announcements
9:30-9:50am	Forest Health Conditions Report 2018. Stephen Burr, USDA Forest Service
9:50-10:10am	Large worms at large: Nightcrawlers change Alaskan forests. Matt Bowser, USFWS
10:10-10:30am	Climate change in Alaska: Impacts on the entomofauna. Derek S. Sikes, UAF, UAM
10:30-10:50am	Break
10:50-11:10am	Southcentral Alaska spruce beetle outbreak: Observations from the field. Jason Moan, DNR
11:10-11:40am	The effects of climate change on invasive species and their impacts on forests and rangelands. Chris Fettig, USDA Forest Service
11:40am-12:40pm	Lunch Break
12:40-1:00pm	Gates of the Arctic pollinators. Jessica Rykken, NPS
	Student Talks
1:00-1:20pm	Beetle, spider, and bumblebee communities differ across an elevational gradient in Denali National Park & Preserve. Adam Haberski, UAF, UAM

- 1:20-1:40pm Earthworms (Oligochaeta: Lumbricidae) of Interior Alaska.
Megan Booyesen, West Valley High School
- 1:40-2:10pm Microarthropod abundance and community structure along a successional chronosequence within the Tanana River floodplain. Robin Andrews, UAF
- 2:10-2:30pm Break
- 2:30-4:30pm Society Business Meeting